FAREWELL TO ALLELUIA:

The omission of Alleluia (Hallelujah) during Lent goes back at least to the fifth century in the western church. The custom of actually bidding it farewell, however, developed in the Middle Ages. An actual reference to the ancient practice of bidding Farewell to Alleluia is found in ELW #318 Verse 3 "Alleluia, Song of Gladness" which contains a translation of an 11th century Latin text that compares an Alleluia-less Lent to the exile of the Israelites in Babylon. The text then anticipates the joy of Easter when glad Alleluias will return in all their heavenly splendor.
