A NOTE ABOUT THE PRELUDE:

Sept. 29th, the Feast of St. Michael & All Angels (also called Michaelmas or Michael's Mass), is the most ancient of all the angel festivals in Christian traditions. In the Western Church, Michael is the greatest of all Archangels, leading the good angels in the war in heaven and defeating Satan and the evil angels, driving them from heaven (Rev. 12:7-13). In the Old Testament book of Daniel, Michael leads the faithful dead to God's throne on the day of resurrection. During the Middle Ages, Michaelmas was a great religious feast with many popular traditions and coincided with the harvest in much of western Europe.
