POSTLUDE "A Festive Trumpet Tune" by Douglas E. Wagner

The omission of Alleluia (Hallelujah) during Lent goes back at least to the fifth century in the western church. The custom of actually bidding it farewell, however, developed in the Middle Ages. An actual reference to the ancient practice of bidding Farewell to Alleluia is found in ELW #318 Verse 3 "Alleluia, Song of Gladness" which contains a translation of an 11th century Latin text that compares an Alleluia-less Lent to the exile of the Israelites in Babylon. The text then anticipates the joy of Easter when glad Alleluias will return in all their heavenly splendor.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

+This is the patch of our Marine squadron which lost five crewmen in a tragic CH-53 crash on Wednesday morning. They were 20 minutes from touchdown on our base and perished in the "atmospheric river" which hit southern California during the past week. Pray for them, their families, their fellow Marines...all of whom are affected by this disaster.

We also pray for:

- Elena Tilton that doctors would find the treatment to control her RA pain as her she current medication is not bringing relief.
- Rod and Crystal Boisvert who are both convalescing at a rehab center in Kearny Mesa (B.Karge/J. Neuhaus)
- +Pastor Andreas recovering from his 2nd total knee reconstruction.
- Aline, recovering from surgery to remove a baseball size tumor from her colon and intestine. She is recovering at home, waiting to find out if chemo is needed (Tammy's boss)
- Claire & Kevin Clay- undergoing fertility treatments; prayers for strength, peace, and comfort during stressful times.
- Carol Davidson—that her transfusion treatments are effective.
- Sherry Martin, who continues her health journey with good news on her most recent medical update, for continued peace.
